Cold in Head, Chest or Throat?

RUB MUSTEROLE well into your chest and throat—almost instantly you feel easier. Repeat the MUSTEROLE rub once an hour for five hours...

Those good old-fashioned cold remedies—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor—mixed with other valuable ingredients. MUSTEROLE to make it what doctors call a "counter-irritant" because it gets action and is not just a salve.

It penetrates and stimulates blood circulation and helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. Keep MUSTEROLE handy—jars, tubes.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

PLANNING MEETING SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Many New Features Planned for Forenoon Sessions

Planning meetings are almost upon us again with all their gay activities, new feeds and volumes of interesting and useful work planned and scheduled. Everyone is satisfied that the extension agents will be busy at least half the year in their own community.

Plans are being made for educational farming and home making moving pictures to be shown in the communities. Subject matter talks will form a part of the forenoon session in some communities and local speakers and entertainers will be called upon to do their part. A consideration of the program that will be a combination of special value and interest to the men as well as to the women, will make your plans to attend a planning of all meetings in your community.

A schedule of the dates for the meetings is given below. These meetings will not be changed unless advised by the extension agent in the community concerned. Suggested:

Spiritual Circles

Meetings Held Each Thursday Evening

The Thursday night meeting was as usual, a full house with the usual members as Dr. and Mrs. Clement and O. S. Montphre, assisted by Robert Fuller of New Gloucester and Eugene Libby of Boston. There was another in the same place, at Mrs. Pierson's, near Hick's Crossing, Wednesday, November 12, at 7:30.

The Sunday night meeting in G. A. R. Hall was rather a disappointment as Mr. Fuller was called away and could not get back, but there was a full house and hope that will happen next Sunday. The mediums were Eugene Libby and Dr. and Mrs. Clement. Mrs. Doloff of Lewiston came to the meeting, so assisted. Be sure to come next Sunday.

MRS. EMMA E. TWITCHELL

The death of Mrs. Emma E. Twitchell occurred at her home on McKean St., Oxford Park, South Paris, Wednesday, November 5, at 4 p. m. She had been in poor health for some months, but pneumonia was the fatal illness of short duration. Her age was 69 years, 10 months, 7 days.

The deceased was born in Albany, Dec. 20, 1860. Her first husband was Samuel Bragdon who died in 1919, and the second was William Twitchell of South Paris.

About all her life had been spent in Norway and in Paris near Snow's Falls and for the past twenty-five years in Oxford Park.

She was a member of Paris Grange and a faithful attendant when her health permitted.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. MacBerrington of Norway and Helen Monro of Boston. One brother, Charles Baneroff, of Westbrook, survives, also a grandson, Leslie Cooper, of Mechanic Falls, and a granddaughter, Helen Murphy, of Boston. There are several nephews and nieces in Portland and the West.

Services were held from Huff's Funeral Home, South Paris, Friday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. C. B. Rheiner of the Norway Universalist Church. There were prayers at the grave in the Center cemetery, where the body was interred.

Bryant Pond Club of Boston

Interested Musical Program by Maine Talent Enjoyed Second Annual Reunion

The second annual reunion of former residents of Bryant Pond, Maine, was held at the home of Mrs. L. M. Mann & Son at Bryant Pond, Saturday evening, Nov. 8. A delicious New England baked dinner was served at 7 p. m., by the women of the club. The long tables were decorated with pine from the old home town in Maine. At each place was a favor, a young lady dressed in blue and made with cloths from the factory of the club. The program was very interesting. Besides the piano and common violin, there were the Japanese fiddle and Chinese fiddle, the ancient Psaltery, and other old instruments of the past. Mrs. Jimenez recited poems of her own authorship. Besides the little white dog, Pinto did his part in the program. They went to North Paris, Sunday evening.

At the all day Grange meeting last Saturday, there was a good company out to dinner and for the program in the afternoon. There were speakers from South Paris and Franklin Granges, also several other Granges were represented. State Lecturer Allison P. Hoxes from Palmyra was present and gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the citizenship and how Grange patrons could unite in making better government. Other numbers on the program were readings of "The Grange" by Mrs. Martha Buck in Gorham, N. H.

Walton Wyman led the community singing in which all heartily joined. The informal program ended with the singing of "Maine" to the tune of Auld Lang Syne.

Following the program a short business session was held and the same officers as last year elected: Myrtle A. Bacon, president; Arthur Cushman, vice president; Raeburn Hathaway, secretary. Officers were elected after the meeting. The party joined in a march led by W. G. Morton and Mira Cole. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Woodman furnished music for the march and waltz which followed. The rest of the evening was spent in renewing old friendships and talking over the good old days at Bryant Pond, Maine.
